2014 AMERICAN LEAGUE CENTRAL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

The Detroit Tigers did it again. For the fourth consecutive season, the Tigers clinched the American League Central Division title after finishing the 2014 season with a 90-72 record with manager Brad Ausmus in his first season with the club. Ausmus became the fourth manager in club history to advance to the postseason in his first season at the helm, joining Hughie Jennings (1907), Mickey Cochrane (1934) and Jim Leyland (2006). It also marked the first time the Tigers have clinched the division at home since 1987 and the seventh time the Tigers have captured a division title since divisional play began during the 1969 season. Detroit advanced to the playoffs in four straight seasons for the first time in club history. Detroit eventually was swept by the Baltimore Orioles 3-0 in the American League Division Series, making it the first time the Tigers have not advanced to the American League Championship Series since 2010.

Detroit boasted a well-rounded lineup and resilient pitching staff that propelled the team to another successful eason. At the plate, the Tigers led the American League with a season. At the plate, the Tigers led the American League with a .277 team batting average, 1,577 hits, 325 doubles, 731 RBI, a .331 on-base percentage and a .426 slugging percentage, while they were second with 757 runs scored and tied for fourth with 155 home runs. Miguel Cabrera and Victor Martinez combined to form one of the best offensive units in the majors in 2014. Cabrera hit 25 home runs and drove in 109 runs, while Martinez belted 32 home runs and had 103 RBI. They are just the eighth pair of Tigers to hit 25-or-more home runs in a season and drive in 100-or-more RBI.

Martinez put together a superb year as he was among the league leaders in nearly every offensive category. He led the American League with one strikeout every 15.26 plate appearances, a .409 on-base percentage and 28 intentional walks, while he was second with a .335 batting average and a .565 slugging percentage. He was third with 57 multi-hit games, tied for fourth with 188 hits, fifth with 317 total bases, seventh with

AL CENTRAL CHAMPIONS

65 extra-base hits and a .326 batting average with runners in scoring position, tied for seventh with 103 RBI and eighth with 32 home runs. Martinez established new career highs in hits, home runs, onbase percentage and slugging percentage.

Cabrera led the American League with 52 doubles and 11 sacrifice flies, while he was tied for first with 19 game-winning RBI, second with 78 extra-base hits and 109 RBI, third with 191 hits and tied for third with 101 runs scored. He was fourth with 320 total bases, tied for fifth with 55 multi-hit games, sixth with a .336 batting average with runners in scoring position, seventh with a .313 batting average and a .524 slugging percentage and 10th with a .371 onbase percentage. Miggy added another career milestone to the expanding list as he knocked in his 2,000th career hit on April 4th against the Orioles, a two-run home run during the eighth inning off Ryan Webb. He became the 15th active player with 2,000-or-more hits and the sixth Venezuelan player all-time to reach 2,000 hits, the ninth player in major league history to reach such a feat before his 31st birthday and was the second Tigers player to do so (other, Ty Cobb).

Other big contributors to the Tigers offense included J.D. Martinez and Ian Kinsler. After starting the season at Triple A Toledo, Martinez turned out to be an unexpected offensive gem for the Tigers. Martinez established career highs in nearly every offensive category, including hits (139), doubles (30), home runs (23), and RBI (76). Kinsler started the season off strong, hitting .303 (115x379) with 64 runs scored, 26 doubles, two triples, six home runs and 41 RBI in 71 games prior to the All-Star break.

Miguel Cabrera was elected by the fans as the starting first baseman for the 2014 All-Star Game at Target Field. while Ian Kinsler, Victor Martinez and Max Scherzer were all named to the All-Star team. It marked the ninth All-Star selection for Cabrera, fourth for Kinsler, fifth for Martinez and second for Scherzer. It marked the second straight year Cabrera has been elected to start the game following his fan election at third base in 2013.

The Tigers pitching staff posted another strong season as four members of the starting rotation threw at least 200.0 innings in 2014. David Price, who was acquired from the Rays at the trade deadline, led the American League with 248.1 innings pitched, Max Scherzer was fifth with 220.1 innings pitched, Justin Verlander was 12th with 206.0 innings pitched and Rick Porcello was 13th with 204.2 innings. Price reached the 200 innings mark for the fourth time in his career, while Scherzer threw 200.0-or-more innings for the second consecutive season. Verlander recorded his eighth straight season with at least 200 innings, while Porcello reached the 200 inning mark for the first time in his major league career.

Justin Verlander earned the nod as the Opening Day starter, marking the seventh consecutive season he has been named as Detroit's Opening Day starter. Verlander compiled an 8-8 record with a 4.88 ERA (129.0IP/70ER) in 20 starts before the All-Star break. He went 7-4 with a 3.97 ERA (77.0IP/34ER) in 12 starts following the break. He recorded his 150th win of his career on September 8th against Kansas City and became just one of seven active pitchers to have 150 career victories.

Scherzer tied for the American League lead with 18 victories, while he was second with a .783 winning percentage and 10.29 strikeouts per nine innings, third with 252 strikeouts, fifth with 220.1 innings pitched and ninth with a 3.15 ERA (220.1IP/77ER) in 2014. Schezer recorded his first career complete game against the White Sox on June 12th, allowing just three hits in the shutout with three walks and eight strikeouts.

Price finished the season with a major league leading 248.1 innings pitched and 271 strikeouts, both single season career highs for him. Price was tied for second in the American League with three complete games, third with 1.38 walks per nine innings, fourth with 9.82 strikeouts per nine inning and tied for fifth with 24 quality starts. He tossed at least 8.0 innings in 17 starts, which led the majors and was the most by a major league pitcher since Cliff Lee had 17 such starts in 2010.

The passionate Detroit Tigers fans continued to pack Comerica Park in 2014. The Tigers recorded a season attendance of 2,917,209, which was the fifth-largest single season total in the 114 year history of the club. Additionally, the Tigers finished the season with 27 sellout crowds in another exciting season of Tigers baseball.

MICHAEL ILITCH

OWNER/DIRECTOR

A proven leader in the sports, food and entertainment industries, Michael Ilitch enters his 23rd full season as Owner/Director of the Detroit Tigers.

- Under his stewardship, the Tigers have made two World Series appearances; captured two American League Championships; and are currently four-time defending American League Central Division champions, the only time in franchise history this feat has been accomplished.
- He was a driving force behind the creation of the Tigers spectacular new home, Comerica Park, in 2000 and contributed more than 60 percent of the financing for the over $300 million facility.
- Served a key role in designing the ballpark, bringing years of entertainment experience that resulted in many of the features that make Comerica Park a unique destination.
- Conceptualized and funded the redesign of Comerica Park's suites and the new high definition video board, the largest of its type in the state of Michigan, following the 2011 season.
- Ilitich's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that began when he signed a minor league player's contract with the organization in his early 20s...his playing career was cut short due to an injury his fourth season with the club.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian...Little Caesars, now the world's largest carryout-only pizza chain, celebrates 56 years in business in 2015.
- The Ilitches purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982 and have built the franchise into an elite NHL powerhouse with four Stanley Cup titles under their ownership.
- Along with the Red Wings, purchased Olympia Arenas, Inc. (renamed Olympia Entertainment in 1996), which manages restaurants, sports and entertainment venues in Detroit.
- At a time when many businesses were leaving Detroit, the llitches purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, an iconic landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue...with great effort, the building was restored to its original 1928 splendor and was reopened in 1988...the 5,000 seat theatre continues to attract audiences with a wide range of quality entertainment.
- Renovated the office space attached to the Fox Theatre in 1989 and made it the Little Caesers world headquarters. The headquarters will soon be expanded into an entire campus with the addition of a new Little Caesars Global Resource Center next door to the Fox.
- Created Olympia Development in 1996 to focus on development projects in downtown Detroit, such as Hockeytown Café and the City Theatre. Today, Olympia Development is executing the vision of the District
 Detroit, the most ambitious development project in the organization's history. The District Detroit a world-class sports and entertainment district will transform dozens of blocks of underutilized land, connect Midtown to Downtown Detroit and deliver an expected $1.8 billion economic impact to the city, region and state.
- Received Presidential Citations from three United States Presidents -- Bill Clinton, George H.W. Bush and Ronald Reagan for the Little Caesars Love Kitchen, a mobile kitchen that feeds hot pizza meals to people in need, disaster victims and first responders.
- Inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2003 and the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2004.
- Given the Secretary's Award in 2007, the highest honor given to a civilian by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, for the Little Caesars Veterans Program, which provides honorably discharged veterans with a business opportunity when they transition from service or seek a career change.
- Rated the number one owner in professional sports by Turnkey Sports and Entertainment in 2008.
- Voted the most effective team owner in the NHL by a SportsBusiness Journal survey in 2010.
- Ranked the number one franchise owner in all of professional sports in ESPN the Magazine's "Ultimate Standings 2011" for honesty, commitment to community, and loyalty to core players.
- Honored with SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" Award in 2014, which is given to architects and builders of the sports industry who have an outstanding body of work throughout their career.
- In his hometown of Detroit, Ilitch has been honored by many for his efforts in the community, including most recently the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award presented to individuals who have made a positive impact on young people...the Distinguished Martin Luther King Jr. Community Service Award from the Michigan Department of Health for promoting and demonstrating exemplary performance in advancing principles of human rights, equality and positive social change...and the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award for exemplary regional leadership.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

DETROIT TIGERS OLDE ENGLISH 'D'

The Detroit Tigers Olde English 'D' is one of the most revered emblems in Major League Baseball. It was first stitched on the away uniform in 1904, only three years after the team had joined the newly formed American League. The following year, the Olde English 'D' was stitched on the home uniform as well and also appeared on the baseball cap. Through the years the 'D' has undergone various stylizations, but the pride this symbol brings to the team and its fans has been constant.

TIGERS YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888. The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

THANKS A MILLION, TIGERS FANS

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 50 seasons, the lone American League team to do so. Only the Cardinals (51 years) and the Dodgers (69 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 55 years in Los Angeles. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR LEAGUE BATTING AND PITCHING TITLES

A batting champion is determined each season in each league by the highest batting average (number of hits divided by the number of at-bats) based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which may include walks, sacrifices flies and hit by pitch.

The pitching champion is determined in each league by the lowest earned run average (number of earned runs multiplied by nine, then divided by innings pitched) with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

July 8, 1941 American League 7, National League 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive all-star games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

13, 1971 LEAGUE 6. NATIONAL

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13. 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee. Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Teiada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

THE LINES ON

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame...
 garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (297) and fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tigers teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- · Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

Born: 4/6/1903 in Bridgewater, MA
Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947

Ht./Wt.: 5-10/180

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Series Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player after leading the Tigers to their first American League pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named American League Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.

 two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.

- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old American League record for hits by a righthanded hatter
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.

 recently as a special assistant to the president.

HARWELL ENSHRINED IN COOPERSTOWN

Ernie Harwell retired as the Tigers play-by-play radio announcer following the 2002 season, his 55th season in Major League Baseball and his 42nd calling Tigers baseball.

He received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1981, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence. Harwell was the fifth recipient of the honor, becoming the first active broadcaster to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Harwell was named the play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948, his first major league appointment. After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved on to play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960. He was at the microphone for Bobby Thomson's historic playoff home run in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.

He served as the Tigers radio play-by-play voice from 1960-91, before broadcasting games for Tigers television from 1993-98. Hanwell returned to the radio booth for the final season at Tiger Stadium in 1999.

Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor. Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers retired Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony on June 26, 2011.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

TIGERS SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Joker Marchant Stadium and TigerTown Spring Training Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2015 for their 79th season in Lakeland and their 50th at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, which will solidify the Tigers continuing their Spring Training at Joker Marchant Stadium through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium.The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that features luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the TigerTown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 390-309-22 and 3,614,291 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

FETZER HALL AND TIGERTOWN FACILITIES

While the Tigers major league club has trained in Lakeland since 1934, the organization's minor league affiliates have called Lakeland home since 1953. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945 and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the minor league system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three minor league affiliates and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first minor league spring training held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

Player housing on site at the TigerTown complex continued in the barracks through the 1970 season, when the club, in conjunction with the City of Lakeland, began construction on Fetzer Hall at a cost of $425,000. Touted as boasting the last word in construction with air conditioning, controlled heating and carpeted rooms, the dormitory was designed to house nearly 200 players and coaches during the baseball season.

The facility was completed during the summer of 1970 and dedicated in 1971. It was named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers added an administration building, cafeteria and recreation center in 1993 to expand the TigerTown facility.

Fetzer Hall and the surrounding facilities underwent a $1 million renovation prior to the 2008 season. The renovation upgraded the dormitory rooms, lounge areas, recreational areas and the cafeteria. Each room is equipped with a flat screen television and high-speed Internet access. Lounge areas feature large screen televisions and couches for players to relax.

Each room in Fetzer Hall is named for a different part of Tigers history. Rooms on the first floor are named after Tigers Hall of Fame players. Rooms on the second floor are named after noteworthy Tigers coaches and managers and the third floor rooms are named after different parts of TigerTown history.

What began as simple housing accommodations in former military barracks has given way to a facility that helps provide players with many of the comforts of home while allowing them to stay in close proximity to top notch training facilities. The advancement from Lodwick Field and military barracks to the current TigerTown facility and Fetzer Hall has helped the Tigers maintain one of the top minor league headquarters in baseball.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area behind third base and the "Big Cat Court" food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the newest and most stunning features at Comerica Park is the massive High Definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide and utilizes the latest in LED technology, offering excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo which utilizes LED technology to allow the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23.000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2.000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

Moments in Comerica Park history

Comerica Park is entering its 16th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first playoff game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees 6-0 and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDONEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

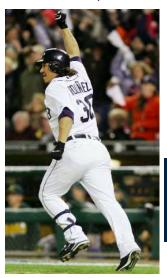

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordonez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street delivery into the Detroit sky for a gameending three-run home run that propelled the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007 in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at Briggs Stadium.
